About RKDF University Ranchi

RKDF University, Ranchi was established in 2018 by Dr. Sunil Kapoor through the Ayushmati Education and Social Society, with a vision to provide quality education and transform Ranchi into a hub for academic excellence. It is part of the RKDF Group, which began its journey in 1994 by setting up the first private engineering college in Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh. Today, the group operates 162 institutions and six universities across India, including five in Madhya Pradesh and one in Jharkhand. RKDF University, Ranchi is recognized by the Government of Jharkhand and registered under UGC Act 2(f). It is also a proud member of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU), ensuring academic credibility and national recognition. The university actively promotes research and academic growth through its publication house, IJHESM (International Journal of Humanities, Engineering, Science & Management), which holds an impressive SJIF impact factor of 5.81, encouraging scholarly contributions across disciplines.
